Dated 8—2—1952

[Despatch Abstract.]

INDUSTRIES - Special Engineer (Construction) - Delegation of powers exercised by a Divisional Officer of the P.W.D. - Proposal of the Director of Industries and Commerce - Approved.

Copy of letter No.4100/R4/50, dated 21st December 1951, from the Director of Industries and Commerce, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Development Department, Madras.

....

Sub: INDUSTRIES - Special Engineer (Construction) - Delegation of Financial Powers - Regarding.

Ref: Government Memo.No.90626-D1/50-8, dated 6.10.51.

....

The Special Engineer is now exercising the powers delegated to him under Art. 93(b) of the M.F. Code Vol. I.

In consequence of the orders issued in G.O. Ms.No. 4140 Development dated 18.9.1951 the Special Engineer, has to maintain hereafter the P.W.D. system of accounts. As he will function just like an Executive Engineer in the Public Works Department, all the powers exercised by the latter as defined in the P.W.D. Code (Vide paras 39, 40, 41, 56, 60, 61, 428 to 434 for instance) and in M.F. Codes and Madras Treasury Codes have to be delegated him.

I request therefore that Government be pleased to delegate to the Special Engineer all the powers exercised by a Divisional Officer of the Public Works Department as defined in P.W. Department and Account Codes and Madras Financial and Treasury Codes.
